Messenger

December 2015

Call His Name.

And
the angel
said unto them, Fear not for behold, I bring you tidings of great joy which shall be to all people. For unto you is born this day in the city of David, a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord. And this shall be a sign unto you; ye shall find the babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger. And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly hosts praising God and saying, Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men. ... And they came with haste, and found Mary, Joseph, and the Babe lying in a manger. And when they had seen it, they made known abroad the saying which was told them concerning this child. And all they that heard it wondered at those things which were told them by the shepherds.

For He shall save His people from their sins.

The Original Christmas Songs

What could be more natural than Christmas and music? It is hard to imagine what the season would be like without Christmas carols, cantatas, or even Bing Crosby singing “White Christmas”.

Music has been a big part of the Christmas season for centuries, but they didn’t originate in Medieval Europe or colonial America. The very first Christmas carols go back much farther than that. They began as spontaneous outbursts of praise from people who had remarkable experiences connected with Christ’s birth.

Luke the physician was the first to record the original four Christmas carols – in the first two chapters of his gospel. All four songs were part of the narrative of Jesus’ Incarnation.

The Early Church knew these original Christmas Carols by heart. When the Scriptures were translated into Latin, the four songs recorded by Luke were given Latin titles:

Mary’s Song, found in Luke 1:48-55 is called “The Magnificat”. Zechariah’s Song, from Luke 1:67-80 is called “The Benedictus”. The song the angels sang in Luke 2:14 is called, “Gloria in Excelsis, while Simeon’s Song, found in Luke 2:29-32 is called “The Nunc Dimittis”

This Christmas season, starting on November 29th, I am going to share a sermon series based on these passages. I think you are going to find a wonderful and new connection between the four original Christmas carols and faith in God.

Sincerely,

Dr. David W. Price

Lead Pastor

“God and Country”

Honoring Those Who Served - Praising God for His Protection

Veteran's Day, Wednesday, November 11, 2015

Thank-You

Judging from the many positive comments about the God and Country program, I believe that it accomplished its purpose—to honor Veterans. Many contributed to the success and deserve recognition. First, let me thank all the program participants: J.B. Kump, Dave Murton, Pat Hopper and the choir, VADM James Amerault, George Eisemann, Dave Kalkman, Doug Nie, Rick Ellwanger, Mike Zeigler, Tom Fearon, Dick Klotz, and Bob Weigel. My husband Ed worked in the sound booth. Randy Hopper joined three of the color guards who also ushered. Marie Jasper and her team of men and women did an outstanding job with the reception. Working behind the scenes were Sandi Nie, Jane Millsaps, Cyndi Vazquez, and Lyn Dunn. Finally, thanks to the veterans and their families for providing pictures and information. But more importantly, thank you, veterans, for your service to our country. It was my pleasure to produce this program.
